Proposed Agency Information Collection Activities; Comment Request

AGENCIES: Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC), Treasury; Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (Board); Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC); and Office of Thrift Supervision (OTS), Treasury.

ACTION: Joint notice and request for comment.

SUMMARY: In accordance with the requirements of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. chapter 35), the OCC, the Board, the FDIC, and the OTS (collectively, the agencies) may not conduct or sponsor, and the respondent is not required to respond to, an information collection unless it displays a currently valid Office of Management and Budget (OMB) control number. The Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council (FFIEC), of which the agencies are members, has approved the agencies' publication for public comment of proposed new regulatory reporting requirements for banks<sup>1</sup> that are subject to the agencies' revised market risk capital rules. The proposal describes the scope of reporting and the proposed reporting requirements. At the end of the comment period, the comments and recommendations received will be analyzed to determine the extent to which the FFIEC should modify the proposed reporting requirements prior to giving its final approval. The agencies will then submit the

General Description of Reports

These information collections would be mandatory for banks that meet the market risk requirements within the agencies' risk-based capital standards: 12 U.S.C. 161 (for national banks), 12 U.S.C. 324 and 12 U.S.C. 1844(c) (for state member banks and BHCs, respectively), 12 U.S.C. 1817 (for insured state nonmember commercial and savings banks), and 12 U.S.C. 1464 (for savings associations). These information collections would be given confidential treatment (5 U.S.C. 552(b)(4)).

Abstract

Each bank that meets the market risk requirements within the agencies' risk-based capital standards would file quarterly regulatory reports for the agencies' use in assessing the reasonableness and accuracy of a reporting entity's calculation of its minimum capital requirements under the market risk rules and in evaluating an entity's capital in relation to its risks.

Current Actions

Risk-Based Capital Standards: Market Risk Framework: Regulatory Reporting Requirements

I. Background

The agencies have today published a joint notice of proposed rulemaking entitled Risk-Based Capital Standards: Market Risk (the Market Risk NPR).<sup>3</sup> The Market Risk NPR, which would apply to all banks that meet the market risk requirements, describes proposed changes to the agencies' existing market risk rules.<sup>4</sup> Included within the Market Risk NPR are requirements for public disclosure of certain information at the consolidated banking organization level as well as a reference to certain additional regulatory reporting by depository institutions (DIs) and <sup>3</sup> Terms used in this text and in the proposed regulatory reporting schedule and instructions are used as defined in the Market Risk NPR.

<sup>4</sup> For the OTS, the Market Risk NPR provides a new framework for assessing capital for market risk.

BHCs. The additional regulatory reporting referenced within the Market Risk NPR, and described more fully herein, comprise the agencies' proposed regulatory reporting requirements.

The agencies are publishing the Market Risk NPR and the regulatory reporting proposal described herein at the same time as their notice of proposed rulemaking for the Advanced Capital Adequacy Framework for risk-based capital and its associated regulatory reporting proposal so that the industry, and other interested parties, may assess the full impact of the two proposed rules.

At present, banks and BHCs that are subject to the existing market risk rules report the amount of their market risk equivalent assets in their respective quarterly regulatory reports.<sup>5</sup> This current reporting requirement reveals only the end result of the market risk calculations without providing any information concerning the key inputs to the measure for market risk. Accordingly, the agencies are proposing the standardized regulatory reporting requirements described herein in order to assess the reasonableness and accuracy of a bank's calculation of its minimum capital requirements under the proposed revised Market Risk rule and to evaluate a bank's capital in relation to its risks. Importantly, the new reports will allow the agencies to better track growth in more credit-risk related, less liquid, and less actively traded products in the trading book that, in the past, have had risks that have been difficult to capture and measure. These reports should assist the agencies in ensuring that these risks are adequately reflected for safety and soundness purposes.

<sup>5</sup> For banks, the Consolidated Reports of Condition and Income (Call Report) (Form FFIEC 031 or FFIEC 041; OMB No. 1557-0081 for the OCC, 7100-0036 for the Board, and 3064-0052 for the FDIC) and, for BHCs, the Consolidated Financial Statements for Bank Holding Companies (Board Form FR Y-9C; OMB No. 7100-0128). As mentioned in footnote 4, for the OTS, the Market Risk NPR provides a new framework for assessing capital for market risk. As a consequence, savings associations currently are not subject to a regulatory reporting requirement related to market risk in the Thrift Financial Report (OTS Form 1313; OMB No. 1550-0023).

In this regard, the reported data will enable the agencies to monitor the levels of and trends in components that comprise the market risk measure under the proposed revised rule within and across reporting banks. Such component reporting will allow supervisors to better understand, on an ongoing basis, model implied diversification benefits for individual banks. The agencies also will gain the ability to perform bank-to-bank comparisons of the drivers underlying banks' measures for market risk, identify potential outliers through bank-to-peer comparisons, track these drivers at banks over time relative to trends in other risk indicators, and focus onsite examination efforts. Furthermore, the agencies believe that requiring certain common reporting across banks would facilitate comparable application of the proposed revised Market Risk rule.

Scope and Frequency of Regulatory Reporting

The proposed regulatory reporting requirements associated with the Market Risk NPR would apply, on a consolidated basis, to each BHC and each DI that is required to calculate its risk-based capital using the market risk rules (see Section 1(b) of the proposed regulatory text in the Market Risk NPR for a detailed description of the institutions covered by this notice). Reporting BHCs and DIs would submit reports quarterly because efforts to monitor banks' progress toward, and actions under, the Market Risk rules require regular and consistent reports from all of the institutions subject to this rule.

The agencies expect that the report due dates for the proposal described herein would be the same as the report due dates currently required by banks, savings associations, and bank holding companies when filing their respective quarterly regulatory reports. In addition, the agencies expect all banks to meet the existing reporting standards for accuracy and other requirements as currently mandated by their primary Federal supervisor.

Schedule 1, for market risk, would first be reported at the end of the first calendar quarter in which the market risk rule becomes effective.

II. Overview of the Data Collection Proposal

Schedule 1 shows the data elements within the market risk exposure class that would be reported under the Market Risk NPR. The data submitted in Schedule 1 will be shared among the four agencies but will not be released to the public. The schedule is subdivided into sections. The first section contains data elements relating to banks' approved regulatory market risk models including details of value at risk (VaR) measures (as of the reporting date and averaged over 60 days) broken down by associated risk categories (interest rate, equity, foreign exchange, commodities, and credit) and specific risk charges. The second section contains data elements relating to market risk exposures covered under the standard method broken down by covered debt and equity positions. Other sections contain data elements relating to summary information on default risk charges and valuation adjustments.

In developing this proposal, the agencies considered several trade-offs between reporting burden and the information needs of bank supervisors. One issue that the agencies identified was that banks have exposures in certain products that might fit into more than one of the specified risk categories (interest rate, equity, foreign exchange, commodities, and credit). For example, convertible securities will mostly be subject to interest rate risk unless their value converges with that of the underlying equity. Similarly, foreign exchange swaps are primarily interest rate positions, but it is possible that a bank might classify some as foreign exchange risk. As a result, the agencies propose that banks may classify their exposures in the same categories in which they are reported internally for purposes of calculating the VaRs for this reporting schedule. Similarly, the agencies, for purposes of this reporting schedule, have defined correlation benefit as any adjustment to VaR that a bank makes to reflect statistical correlation between the values of the underlying positions. The agencies also recognize that some banks may not adjust for correlation benefits in their VaR estimates, and in that case a bank need not estimate it for purposes of this reporting schedule.

III. Request for Comment

Public comment is requested on all aspects of this joint notice. The agencies wish to encourage banks and other interested parties to comment on such matters as data availability and data alternatives. In addition, comments are invited on:

- (a) Whether the proposed collections of information are necessary for the proper performance of the agencies' functions, including whether the information has practical utility;
- (b) The accuracy of the agencies' estimates of the burden of the proposed information collections, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;
- (c) Ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected;
- (d) Ways to minimize the burden of information collections on respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology; and
- (e) Estimates of capital or start up costs and costs of operation, maintenance, and purchase of services to provide information.

Comments submitted in response to this joint notice will be shared among the agencies and will be summarized or included in the agencies' requests for OMB approval. All comments will become a matter of public record.
