

Benjamin Eddy
Senior Deputy Comptroller for Regional and Midsize Financial Institutions

Benjamin Eddy is the Senior Deputy Comptroller for Regional and Midsize Financial Institutions for the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC).

In this role, Mr. Eddy oversees the supervision of national banks and federal savings associations between $30 billion and $500 billion in assets. He also serves as a member of the OCC's Executive Committee. He assumed these duties in June 2026.

Prior to joining the OCC, Mr. Eddy worked in the private sector leading aspects of a bank's risk, regulatory and operational transformation. His career also includes roles in risk management, consulting, bank supervision and audit in various private sector companies and at the Federal Reserve Bank of New York.

Mr. Eddy holds a bachelor's degree in finance from the University of Massachusetts Amherst.

