A bank’s success often is attributed to the effectiveness of its directors and management.

Through knowledge and readiness, the board can respond to rapid changes in the financial industry and, with confidence, ask questions of management, auditors, and examiners.

Experienced and new directors will leave this workshop better prepared to successfully fulfill their duties and responsibilities.

Register to attend this one-day workshop for $99.

DON’T DELAY. REGISTER TODAY!
The workshop is limited to the first 35 directors who register.
Work with and learn from experienced OCC examiners who lead this workshop, which includes discussions of best practices, lectures, and hands-on exercises designed for directors of national community banks and federal savings associations.

Learn about key and current issues impacting bank supervision.

Enhance understanding of board responsibilities, duties, and governance.

Learn about the tools senior management needs to provide information to the board.

Increase familiarity with strategic planning and enterprise risk management.
