CONSENT ORDER

WHEREAS, Lender Processing Services, Inc., Jacksonville, Florida (“LPS”), is a leading domestic provider of default management services to the mortgage lending industry, including but not limited to services related to foreclosure, and has provided such services through a number of subsidiaries, including LPS Default Solutions, Inc., Mendota Heights, Minnesota, and DocX, LLC, Alpharetta, Georgia (together with LPS, collectively referred to herein as “LPS”);

WHEREAS, LPS’s financial institution clients include depository institutions regularly examined by, or subsidiaries or affiliates of depository institutions subject to examination by, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (“Board of Governors”), the Office of the

Comptroller of the Currency (“OCC”), the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (“FDIC”), and the Office of Thrift Supervision (“OTS”) (“Examined Servicers”). The Board of Governors, the OCC, the FDIC, and the OTS (collectively, the “Agencies”) are each an appropriate Federal banking agency, as defined in section 1(b)(1) of the Bank Service Company Act (12 U.S.C. § 1861(b)(1)), for one or more Examined Servicers;

WHEREAS, the default management and other services that LPS provides to the Examined Servicers are authorized under, among other things, the Bank Service Company Act (12 U.S.C. § 1861, et seq.), and each Examined Servicer causes the services to be performed for the Examined Servicer by contract or otherwise;

WHEREAS, pursuant to section 7(c) of the Bank Service Company Act (12 U.S.C. § 1867(c)), the default management and other services that LPS provides to the Examined Servicers are subject to regulation and examination by an appropriate Federal banking agency to the same extent that such services would be subject to regulation and examination if performed by the Examined Servicer on its own premises;

WHEREAS, LPS’s default management services are used by Examined Servicers to manage defaulted loans and facilitate completing foreclosures, including related bankruptcy proceedings, by outsourcing certain business processes necessary to take a loan and the underlying property through the default, foreclosure and disposition process, including related bankruptcy processes. The default management services that LPS provides to Examined Servicers include document support services.

WHEREAS, Examined Servicers and outside foreclosure attorneys may contract to use an LPS software product called “LPS Desktop” designed to improve process management, including processes related to document preparation. Examined servicers who contract to use LPS Desktop may also contract for LPS's default management services;

WHEREAS, prior to February 2010, the default management services LPS provided to certain Examined Servicers also included executing documents on behalf of such Examined Servicers (including on behalf of Mortgage Electronic Registration Systems, Inc. for Examined Servicers);

WHEREAS, to facilitate the document execution services, certain Examined Servicers appointed LPS as an agent of that Examined Servicer, or one or more LPS employees as agents or officers of that Examined Servicer, to execute certain documents on behalf of that Examined Servicer. In their capacity as agent or officer of an Examined Servicer, LPS and its employees serving as agents or officers of Examined Servicers were institution-affiliated parties, as defined in sections 3(u) and 8(b)(3) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, as amended (the "FDI Act") (12 U.S.C. §§ 1813(u) and 1818(b)(3)), of the Examined Servicer;

WHEREAS, the Agencies issue by consent this order pursuant to section 7(d) of the Bank Service Company Act (12 U.S.C. § 1867(d)) and this order to cease and desist under section 8(b) of the FDI Act (12 U.S.C. § 1818(b)) against LPS (the "Order");

WHEREAS, in providing document execution services to Examined Servicers, including services that facilitated completing foreclosures, LPS and its employees allegedly:

(a) Executed numerous affidavits and similar sworn statements (collectively, "Affidavits") making various assertions, such as the ownership of the mortgage note and mortgage (or deed of trust), the amount of principal and interest due, and the fees and expenses chargeable to the borrower, in which the affiant represented that the assertions in the Affidavit were made based on personal knowledge or based on a review by the affiant of the relevant books and records, when, in many cases, they were not based on such knowledge or review.

LPS executed these Affidavits on behalf of Examined Servicers knowing they would be filed in state courts and in connection with bankruptcy proceedings in federal courts;

(b) Executed assignments of mortgages containing inaccurate information pertaining to matters including the identity and location of the assignee and beneficiary and the effective date of the assignment. LPS recorded or caused to be recorded these assignments of mortgages in local land record offices, or executed them on behalf of Examined Servicers knowing they would be filed in state courts or in connection with bankruptcy proceedings in federal courts;

(c) Executed Affidavits, assignments of mortgages, and other mortgage-related documents (collectively, "Mortgage Documents") on behalf of Examined Servicers without authority to execute the Mortgage Documents, specifically without having been duly appointed as an agent or officer of the Examined Servicers to execute documents on behalf of the Examined Servicers;

(d) Recorded or caused to be recorded in local land records offices numerous Mortgage Documents that were not properly notarized, including those not signed or affirmed in the presence of a notary, or knew that such Mortgage Documents would be filed in state and federal courts;

(e) Failed to respond in a sufficient and timely manner to the increased level of foreclosures by increasing financial, staffing, and managerial resources to ensure that LPS adequately handled the document execution services that LPS provided to Examined Servicers;
and

(f) Failed to have adequate internal controls, policies and procedures, compliance, risk management, internal audit, and oversight of the document execution services that LPS provided to Examined Servicers;

WHEREAS, the practices set forth above allegedly constitute unsafe and unsound banking practices;

WHEREAS, in connection with a horizontal review of various major residential mortgage servicers conducted by the Agencies, examiners from the Agencies conducted a limited review of the document execution services that LPS provided to Examined Servicers;

WHEREAS, it is the common goal of the Agencies and LPS to ensure that LPS operates in a safe and sound manner and in compliance with all applicable federal and state laws, rules, regulations, court orders, and contractual obligations (collectively, "Legal Requirements");

WHEREAS, after certain conduct set forth above became known, LPS took steps to remediate a limited number of assignments of mortgages containing inaccuracies or other deficiencies;

WHEREAS, although LPS Default Solutions, Inc., and DocX, LLC, ceased providing document execution services to Examined Servicers in or around February 2010, LPS or subsidiaries of LPS continue to provide certain document execution services to statutory trustees in non-judicial foreclosure jurisdictions and is not precluded from providing document execution services to Examined Servicers in the future;

WHEREAS, LPS has agreed to take remedial action required by this Order with respect to the Mortgage Documents; and

WHEREAS, the board of directors of LPS, at a duly constituted meeting, adopted a resolution authorizing and directing Jeffrey S. Carbiener to enter into this Order on behalf of LPS, and consenting to compliance with each and every applicable provision of this Order by LPS and its institution-affiliated parties, as defined in sections 3(u) and 8(b)(3) of the FDI Act (12 U.S.C. §§ 1813(u) and 1818(b)(3)), and waiving any and all rights that LPS may have pursuant to section 8 of the FDI Act (12 U.S.C. § 1818) or otherwise, including, but not limited to: (i) the issuance of a notice of charges; (ii) a hearing for the purpose of taking evidence on any matters set forth in this Order; (iii) judicial review of this Order; (iv) contest the issuance of this Order by the Agencies; and (v) challenge or contest, in any manner, the basis, issuance, validity, terms, effectiveness or enforceability of this Order or any provision hereof.

NOW, THEREFORE, before the filing of any notices, or taking of any testimony or adjudication of or finding on any issues of fact or law herein, and without this Order constituting an admission or denial by LPS of any allegation made or implied by the Agencies in connection with this matter, and solely for the purpose of settling this matter without a formal proceeding being filed and without the necessity for protracted or extended hearings or testimony and pursuant to the aforesaid resolutions:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED by the Board of Governors, pursuant to section 7(d) of the Bank Service Company Act (12 U.S.C. § 1867(d)) and sections 8(b)(1) and (3) of the FDI Act (12 U.S.C. §§1818(b)(1) and 1818(b)(3)), and by the FDIC, OCC, and OTS pursuant to section 7(d) of the Bank Service Company Act (12 U.S.C. § 1867(d)) and section 8(b)(1) of the FDI Act (12 U.S.C. § 1818(b)(1)), that LPS and its institution-affiliated parties shall cease and desist and take affirmative action as follows:
