Regulatory Bulletin 28

The Office of Thrift Supervision (“OTS”) has revised its “Certificate of Good Standing” for savings associations and has renamed it a “Certificate of Corporate Existence.” The revised certificate serves the same function as “good standing” certifications issued by the states for corporations chartered in their respective jurisdictions, and certifications of corporate existence issued by the Comptroller of the Currency for national banks. The revised version certifies the current corporate existence of a savings association and thus continues to provide the public with the necessary information required for the consummation of securities offerings and other corporate transactions.

Use of the new certificate will commence 30 days from the date of this bulletin.

Attached are sample copies of Certificates of Corporate Existence for federal and state savings associations.

Procedure

1. Law firms or institutions requiring a Certificate of Corporate Existence must submit a letter to the following address:

Office of Thrift Supervision
Corporate Secretary
Corporate Activities Division
1700 G Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20552
2. The letter must state the name, city and state of the institution for which the certificate is being requested.
3. A $50.00 fee is required for all documents bearing the agency gold seal. Checks and money orders are to be made payable to the Office of Thrift Supervision. If the request is not accompanied by the fee, it will not be processed.

4. Because of the volume of requests received, the OTS is unable to prepare certificates within short deadlines. Requesters must submit their request at least 5 working days before the certificate is required.
5. The Corporate Activities Division does not accept telephone requests for certificates, nor will the agency provide verbal certification of an institution’s existence. The certification process involves a search of files maintained by OTS, and particular attention must be given to each request.
6. All requests for return by express mail must include a pre-paid, addressed express mail envelope.
