OTS Statement on National Day of Remembrance for Former President Ronald Reagan

WASHINGTON - In accordance with the Executive Order issued by President Bush on June 6, 2004, the Office of Thrift Supervision (OTS) announced that it will close on Friday, June 11 in observance of the National Day of Mourning for former President Ronald Reagan.

In addition, the agency noted that, OTS-chartered federal savings associations choosing to close on Friday in observance of the National Day of Mourning, may do so without objection from OTS. OTS emphasized that institutions planning to close on Friday should provide their customers with sufficient notice of their revised schedule.
