Trading (the Volcker Rule): Notice of Proposed Rulemaking

Description: Extension of Comment Period

TO: Chief Executive Officers of All National Banks, Federal Savings Associations, Federal Branches and Agencies, Department and Division Heads, and All Examining Personnel

On November 7, 2011, the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, and the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the agencies) published in the Federal Register a proposed rule to implement section 619 of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act of 2010 (Dodd-Frank Act), which contains certain prohibitions and restrictions on the ability of a banking entity to engage in proprietary trading and to have certain interests in, or relationships with, a hedge fund or private equity fund. The proposed rule stated that the public comment period would close on January 13, 2012.

Because of the complexity of the issues involved and to facilitate coordination of the rulemaking among the responsible agencies as provided in section 619 of the Dodd-Frank Act, the agencies are extending the comment period from January 13, 2012, until February 13, 2012.

The notice of extension of comment period (attached) was published in the Federal Register on January 3, 2012.

prohibitions and restrictions on the ability of a banking entity and nonbank financial company supervised by the Board to engage in proprietary trading and have certain interests in, or relationships with, a hedge fund or private equity fund (“proposed rule”).

Due to the complexity of the issues involved and to facilitate coordination of the rulemaking among the responsible agencies as provided in section 619 of the Dodd-Frank Act, the Agencies have determined that an extension of the comment period until February 13, 2012 is appropriate. This action will allow interested persons additional time to analyze the proposed rules and prepare their comments.

AGENCY: Securities and Exchange Commission.

ACTION: Proposed rule; extension of comment period.

SUMMARY: The Securities and Exchange Commission is extending the comment period for a release proposing a new rule to implement Section 621 of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act of 2010 (the "Dodd-Frank Act") on material conflicts of interest in connection with certain securitizations (the "ABS Conflicts Proposal"). The original comment period for the ABS Conflicts Proposal was scheduled to end on December 19, 2011. On December 13, 2011, the comment period was extended until January 13, 2012. Today, the Commission is again extending the time period in which to provide the Commission with comments on the ABS Conflicts Proposal until February 13, 2012. This action will allow interested persons additional time to analyze the issues and prepare their comments.

DATES: Comments should be received on or before February 13, 2012.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission has requested comment on Proposed Rule 127B under the Securities Act of 1933 ("Securities Act") in the ABS Conflicts Proposal to implement Section 621 of the Dodd-Frank Act.¹ Proposed Rule 127B under the Securities Act would prohibit certain persons who create and distribute an asset-backed security, including a synthetic asset-backed security, from engaging in transactions, within one year after the date of the first closing of the sale of the asset-backed security, that would involve or result in a material conflict of interest with respect to any investor in the asset-backed security. The proposed rule also would provide exceptions from this prohibition for certain risk-mitigating hedging activities, liquidity commitments, and bona fide market-making. The ABS Conflicts Proposal was published in the Federal Register on September 28, 2011.

The Commission originally requested that comments on the ABS Conflicts Proposal be received by December 19, 2011, including comment about any potential interplay² between Proposed Rule 127B and the "Volcker Rule Proposal."³ The Volcker Rule Proposal would implement Section 619 of the Dodd-Frank Act concerning prohibitions and restrictions on proprietary trading and certain interests in, and relationships with, hedge funds and private equity funds. The original comment period for the Volcker Rule Proposal was scheduled to end on January 13, 2012.

On December 13, 2011, the Commission extended the ABS Conflicts Proposal comment period from December 19, 2011 to January 13, 2012 to coincide with the end of the comment period for the Volcker Rule Proposal. The Commission extended the Volcker Rule Proposal comment period until February 13, 2012.⁴ In an effort to provide the public with a better opportunity to consider any potential interplay between the ABS Conflicts and Volcker Rule Proposals, the Commission is also extending the ABS Conflicts Proposal comment period until February 13, 2012.

The Commission has determined to provide the public additional time to consider simultaneously the ABS Conflicts and the Volcker Rule Proposals. This extended opportunity to submit comprehensive comments regarding the ABS Conflicts Proposal and any potential interplay with the Volcker Rule Proposal would benefit the Commission in its consideration of any final rules. Therefore, the Commission is again extending the comment period for the ABS Conflicts Proposal until February 13, 2012 to coincide with the
